Irene Hoffar was a member of P.A.S.O.V.A.S., the Pioneer Art Students of Vancouver Art School, an artist's group formed in 1930 from the students who entered the Vancouver School of Decorative and Applied Arts in its first year and a half of classes in 1925 and 1926.

Hoffar started classes at the VSDAA in 1925, and was in the first graduating class in 1929, later exhibiting in the PASOVAS group exhibition at the B.C. Art League gallery in 1930.

In the catalogue for the 1929 Winter exhibition of the BCSEA, there are entries for G. Hoffar and J. Hoffar. It is possible that both of these listings are typographic errors for Irene Hoffar, especially since the exhibition catalogue had a few other errors in the listings.

After graduation she took post-graduate studies at the art school, and then travelled to England with Vera Weatherbie for further post-graduate studies at the Royal Academy Schools, London, England. On her return to Vancouver she opened a studio and did portraits, murals, decorative panels, and even the interior of a yacht. She taught drawing and painting at the Vancouver School of Art from 1933 - 1937. In 1933 she married Neville Reid and subsequently exhibited as Irene Hoffar Reid.

She showed work in the B.C. Artists Christmas exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery in 1933.

In 1936, the Spring issue of The Smock Pocket noted that "A portrait by Mrs. IRENE HOFFAR REID, '29, was purchased and presented to the Art Gallery to augment the Permanent Collection. This is the first honor of this kind to be bestowed on a Graduate." The newsletter also noted that Reid was sharing a studio with Margaret Carter at 581 Granville Street.

Reid had work in the PASOVAS group exhibition in 1936, at the Vancouver Art Gallery. She also exhibited work at the National Gallery of Canada, the Seattle Art Museum in 1930, and the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, in 1932. She also showed work in the annual B.C. Artists exhibitions from 1932 to 1938, at least.

She exhibited with the B.C. Society of Fine Arts in their annual exhibitions in 1942, 1943, and 1949. She submitted four charcoal drawings to the 1949 B.C. Graphic exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery, two of them were selected for the exhibition. She was living in Vancouver. In 1967 she was awarded the Canada Centennial Medal for her contribution to the arts.

She was President of the B.C. Society of Artists when the society finally ceased to operate in 1967, after the few remaining members voted it out of existence following an unsuccessful membership campaign.
